

Local market gardener publishes first book

Posted By Christina Bruinsma

June 16 2008 Napanee Guide

Harold John Piercy sits with his granddaughter Dakota McGregor and neighbours Tiffany and Herbie Thompson during his book signing Saturday morning at the Grace United Church. Piercy who was 18 when he began farming in Deseronto resides there with wife Catherine. The two operate a roadside market off their farm. Piercy signed copies of his book Enjoying God's Creation for visitors. It tells stories of the challenges of his life and God's inspiration.